a mess and he doesn't want me to go until he gets it cleaned up, but I don't think I'm going to be left behind. There are lots of Russians out there. The Americans there are working hard to get the country settled up with Americans and they'll do anything for you.

I met several of the people at Hays and it seemed that they most wanted to come down to K.C. and move us out there. There are more negroes there at Ellis than are at Hays and I'm afraid I won't like that so well. However I don't suppose the negroes will bother me.

Sunday eve.

I began this letter Friday evening and meant to finish it yesterday, but had so much company and other things that I went up to the city
